

Resolution Committee

Job Description: shall receive and consider all properly submitted resolutions, (not bylaw proposals) complying with the requirements of the National Bylaws and Administrative Procedures and may offer resolutions on behalf of the Committee deemed by the committee to be advisable and necessary. The committee, by a majority vote, shall either approve or disapprove all registered resolutions considered by the committee. The committee Chairman will report the Committee's recommendations upon such resolutions to the National Convention for its consideration and action. Resolutions are in effect for the current convention only. (AP Sec. 235 (c) (3))

How to present a resolution.

A resolution is voted immediately after it is:

1. Moved
2. Seconded
3. Debated (if debate is allowed and requested)

Once debate ends, the chair calls for a vote right then

When to present a resolution:

Normal order of business

A typical meeting follows this sequence:

1. Call to order
2. Roll call / quorum verification (if required)
3. Approval of the agenda
4. Reading and approval of minutes of the prior meeting
5. Reports (officers, committees)

*Resolutions can be introduced at this time but generally they happen during new business

6. Unfinished (Old) Business
7. New Business ← resolutions are usually introduced here
8. Adjournment
