

CIA Program

Caught in the Act

Great traditions and citizenship start at an early age. Engage youth with positive experiences. We encourage and reward patriotism through the CIA program.

If you see a child who is thanking a veteran, giving them a salute, placing their hands over their hearts during the Pledge of Allegiance, or any other act of patriotism, give them a CIA card with their name on it.

It is a fun and unique way to engage children!