National Guard and Assistant Duties

NATIONAL GUARD shall:

(1) Preserve order at the National Convention and shall be in command of the door at all National Conventions.

(2) Admit no one when a speaker is on the floor, or during election of officers, nor allow anyone to leave at such times.

(3) Allow no one to enter the National Convention sessions without proper and approved credentials.

(4) Report to the National President all who are waiting to enter the National Convention sessions.

(5) Oversee the signing of the attendance register on the first day of attendance by all members upon entering National Convention session. Attendance record to be in care of National Guard and to be at the door at least thirty (30) minutes prior to session opening. She shall have attendance chart and assign each member the number of her registration which she will use for the duration of the convention. All members entering any of the sessions for the first time must sign the attendance register.